

Company Introduction

Shenzhen Jieshibao Technology Co., Ltd. (Hong Kong JSB e-cigarette co., Ltd.) was founded in 2008, adhering to the Management Principle "Customer First, High Quality, Striving for progress and Innovation", the company gradually grow as a new high-tech innovative enterprises in the R & D, production and sale of Electronic cigarettes within just two years. In the electronic cigarettes and its matching products; development, promotion, service and other technical aspects, JSB always maintain an international industry leader. JSB take "Green", Environmental Protection, and "Health" and other modern economic development concept as the mission, long-term committing of scientific research and development production of electronic cigarette and trying to help people to increase consumption quality and enjoy a healthy lifestyle.

The company is located in the east coast of the Pearl River Delta in southern China emerging modern city - Shenzhen, total number of employees has developed from the first 20 people to 450 people now, including a experienced team which consists of six experienced R & D people, more than 20 quality and market experts of the electronic cigarette industry. Now the company factory area is over 5000 square, with 8 automatic production lines, a standard large laboratory and a large number of high-precision testing equipment, actively creating JSB, WINNING two independent brands. It has passed ISO9001 certification.

JSB adhere to market-oriented, take the road of science and technology enterprises. Since its establishment, its high-quality business philosophy and strong internal and external resources brings a large number of highly qualified and experienced R & D, design, operation and management personnel. The company has high standards of quality management system and modern office environment, with advanced electronic technology equipment to ensure product quality meets international standards. The company insist on "High Quality" business purpose put into every aspect from product design to packaging, and pledge to general consumer that each electronic cigarette has passed the specialized testing and strict implementation of quality standards. With modern management techniques and the excellent and efficient team, while in the scientific and technological innovation, the company develop its technical strength and professionalism, effective integrate and collaborate in the related advanced resources , and constantly bring high-quality, wide range of electronic cigarettes products to the market, which sold in Europe, South America, North America, Middle East and other overseas areas.

Electronic cigarettes developed and manufactured is a new type of non-burn health smoking cessation products. It has achieved flow sensing, smoke simulation, smoke temperature simulation and standby time high-tech features of human nature according modern microelectronic technology. It simulates the whole smoking process and creates healthy smoking culture by fashion technology. It is praised as the perfect combination of modern microelectronic technology, biotechnology and healthy living concept.

The electronic cigarettes and their matching products produced by our company include E-cigarette PCC series, E-cigarette cigar series, E-cigarette pipe series, E-cigarette case series, E-cigarette cartridge series, E-cigarette e-liquid series, E-cigarette charger series and E-cigarette package series. From product design to product development, the company insist on the service concept ---- ;continue to create value for customer;, focus on meeting customer;s need. The company;s products has certificated by CE, FCC, FDA, SGS, RHOS, UL and PSE. Its two JSB and WINNING electronic cigarette brand products both have been a leading position in the global market and win a good performance and brand effect. JSB-B and JSB-D charge case designed by our company has applied appearance and utility model two patents, L88, J510, J98K, J118 and other electronic cigarette products have been praised by the majority of consumers in the electronic cigarettes; domestic and international markets.

High aspirations and forge ahead. The company will continue to be based on a good reputation and provide customers with more comprehensive and quality service. As a professional manufacturer of electronic cigarette, the company based on sincerity will be committed to guide high quality fashion and service healthy living. It;s willing to sincerely cooperate with domestic and international customers ---- mutual benefit and common development. With all partners, the company want to provide high-quality products and high standards service and help people to pursue a more healthy lifestyle.

Because of the focus, so professional! JSB technology is willing to work together with all people from all walks of life and create the future.