

aromAmore[®]

The company Nova Sirio originated in 2009 from the acquisition of a company which produced sauces for Restaurants.

In order to improve production, Nova Sirio recently transferred it's head quarters to Opera (Milan) where it has just finished the construction of a new workshop.

Production while remaining artisan in nature, is now able to increase volumes, but continues to guarantee an extremely high standard of quality.

Our exclusive aromAmore[®] line has been created for lovers of healthy and tasty food. Our chef is innovative but at the same time practical.

The distinguishing quality of his creations comes not only from his selection of prime ingredients but also from the need to create a valid alternative to the products currently available to the mass market. Products which are not simply lacking in quality but also and more importantly missing a touch of 'amore'.

least amount possible so as not to alter the appearance and taste.
